

The Ghosts

Vocabulary Quiz

The Ghosts can be viewed at: www.englishclub.com/ghosts

- Someone who has scarcely any money is
a) quite wealthy b) very wealthy c) rather poor
- After the boat sank, the navy undertook the rescue operation because they
a) wanted to save people b) couldn't save anyone c) weren't allowed to
- Which could we say had "befallen" somebody?
a) a lottery win b) a tragic accident c) a job offer
- Which activity is the most hazardous?
a) playing chess b) climbing mountains c) flying kites
- If you want to locate a region, you should look for it in
a) an atlas b) a dictionary c) a supermarket
- If someone speaks very ignorantly about a topic, they
a) know something about it b) know everything about it c) know little about it
- Which has a similar meaning to the old-fashioned noun "fancy"?
a) illustration b) imagination c) impossibility
- Which are used as evidence to support Darwin's theory of evolution?
a) old dinosaur bones b) old Roman temples c) old religious books
- Scientists will dismiss a new theory if they think it is
a) possibly true b) definitely untrue c) definitely true
- A myth is
a) a science-fiction story b) a children's story c) an ancient story
- If someone is very stubborn, they will not
a) change their mind b) tell the truth c) spend much money
- A cedar is a type of
a) drink b) tree c) dog
- If somebody is muttering, they are difficult to
a) hear b) see c) touch
- A chaperone is sent with somebody in order to
a) annoy them b) entertain them c) mind them