

Homework

Opposite Prefixes

A. Complete the sentences by underlining the correct word.

1. It is impossible / inpossible / unpossible to lick your elbow. Try it, and you'll see.
2. A lot of the stuff he told us was totally inbelievable / imbelievable / unbelievable.
3. I find women who wear too much make up very inattractive / unattractive / imattractive.
4. We have very different opinions. I disagree / inagree / unagree with most things he says.
5. You shouldn't be so inkind / unkind / imkind to your sister. She's only four years old.

B. Match the sentence halves, adding a suitable Prefix (dis, in, un, il, ir, im).

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Tim shouldn't have said that to Mary. It | a. the kids were sofriendly. |
| 2. You can't drink alcohol if you're under 18. | b. writing was totallylegible. |
| 3. I was unhappy at my new school because | c.regular verbs. |
| 4. I couldn't correct Joe's essay because his | d. is tasty and quiteexpensive. |
| 5. Think, teach, and sing are all | e. the bed was reallycomfortable. |
| 6. I didn't sleep well in the hotel room because | f. andpolite. |
| 7. I often go to that restaurant. The food | g. was reallysensitive of him. |
| 8. After Mary cooked mackerel, there was | h.like him so much. |
| 9. Henry's a lovely guy. I don't know why you | i. It'slegal. |
| 10. Burping after eating is both disgusting | j. anpleasant smell in the kitchen. |

C. Complete the sentences using one of the words below with a suitable Opposite Prefix.

predictable appealing responsible considerate affordable

1. You shouldn't have left the baby alone. That was really of you.
2. I didn't buy anything at the bakery. All the bread looked stale and
3. The weather these days is so; one day it's cold, the next it's hot.
4. Homes in this area are these days, so I'm looking for a place elsewhere.
5. I can't believe you used up all the hot water. That was really of you.

More on this topic at: eclub.to/prf

Homework answers

Opposite Prefixes

Exercise A

1. impossible
2. unbelievable
3. unattractive
4. disagree
5. unkind

Exercise B

1. g, in
2. i, il
3. a, un
4. b, il
5. c, ir
6. e, un
7. d, in
8. j, un
9. h, dis
10. f, im

Exercise C

1. irresponsible
2. unappealing
3. unpredictable
4. unaffordable
5. inconsiderate